Vargus Mineral Conflict Statement

Vargus Company is a leading company in the field of threading tools for turning, milling and hand deburring tools.

Vargus values embrace the activities of the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) to avoid the use of raw material which finance armed groups in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) or its neighbor's countries.

Vargus committed to responsible supply chain that does business with companies that share our common values.

That is why Vargus received written confirmation from our raw material suppliers that certify that the source of Conflict minerals (*) materials do not come from the conflict area of the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC).

(*)“Conflict minerals” are defined as cassiterite, columbite-tantalite, wolframite, or their derivatives (which includes tin, tantalum, and tungsten), gold, cobalt, or any other minerals or their derivatives determined by the Secretary of State to be financing conflict in the Conflict Region, regardless of where they are sourced, processed or sold.
